

DR. B. M. M'KIN IS ARRESTED ON ORDER GOVERNOR HARKER

Is Found Taking Post Graduate Work at Baltimore, Md.

(By The Associated Press)
BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 26.—Dr. B. M. McKin, former mayor of Mer Rouge, La., wanted by the department of justice agents of that place in connection with the Morehouse parish kidnappings and the finding of two mutilated bodies in Lake LaFourche was arrested today at the Johns Hopkins University-Brady Institute, where he is taking a postgraduate course. The arrest followed receipt of a telegram from Governor Harker of Louisiana requesting the local police to arrest McKin on a charge of murder. After questioning by police officials, Dr. McKin was locked up to await further action of Louisiana authorities.

Officers investigating the local case who arrested McKin said there was nothing contained in Governor Harker's telegram. It read:

"Important. Arrest Dr. McKin for murder. Hold him for Louisiana authorities."

Dr. McKin denied knowledge of the killing of the two men. All I know, he declared, "is that both men who were killed were on the bad side—the side of bootleggers, gunmen and men who associated with negro women."

The discovery of Dr. McKin here and his subsequent arrest came about purely by accident. Word was received here several days ago that Dr. McKin was a student at Johns Hopkins, and department of justice agents sought to question him. University officials denied McKin was registered as a post graduate and stated several letters had been received there for him, but, unable to locate him, the letters were turned over to the post office as "unknown."

Early today a policeman was found on the water front unconscious. He was removed to a hospital. When the hospital report reached police headquarters it was signed by Dr. McKin. It was then that local newspaper men rushed to the hospital and interviewed him. Up to that time, the telegram from Governor Harker asking for his arrest had not been received.

Says He Is Not A Fugitive
Dr. McKin spoke freely and insisted that he was not a fugitive from justice and that he had made no attempt to conceal his identity.

He stated that he has been to Baltimore since October 1, and had left Mer Rouge after an attempt had been made to assassinate him.

Dr. McKin insisted he was not a member of the Ku Klux Klan. He praised the organization, saying "the members did much to hold down bootlegging and immorality while I was Mayor of Mer Rouge."

He also stated that lawlessness is common at Mer Rouge and that he was among those who started to clean up the place. The result, he said, was a hard battle with bootleggers, moonshiners and men of bad repute.

"Just before I left Mer Rouge a boy of good family was shot in the back."

"What did the sheriff and governor do?" The case was dismissed after a jury filled with bootleggers and the vicious element declared the alleged murderer innocent.

"Now when a bootlegger and some one else is killed the governor joins in the investigation. This affair in my opinion will decide whether the decent and good element of the town will control."

Dr. McKin stated he had received threatening letters a long time before he left Mer Rouge and asked the sheriff to investigate, without success.

"Just before I left the mayoralty candidate went into office," he continued, "gangs that paraded streets fired shots around my house. I asked the sheriff to take matters in hand but nothing was done."

EXACT FATE OF TUG CORNELL IS STILL UNSOLVED

Body of Michael Poytosh Found Frozen in Lifeboat

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 26.—Despite the finding today of the lifeboat and the corpse of one of the eight members of the crew of the tug Cornell which disappeared Thursday the mystery surrounding the exact fate of the Cornell remains unsolved. Search for the vessel and the other members of the crew will be continued tomorrow it was announced by the Great Lakes Towing company tonight.

The lifeboat containing the body of Michael Poytosh, fireman of the Cornell was found between Long Point and Port Colborne on the Canadian side of Lake Erie by the searching tug Q. A. Gilmore today.

There was nothing to indicate definitely whether the tug sank after a boiler explosion, burned or foundered in a heavy sea.

Scores of motorboats and tugs and a mail airplane which conducted a search along the American shore of the lake returned today without having found any trace of the craft. The airplane flew to the east of Erie and was out for practically two hours. It was thought a seaman aboard the Gilmore had solved the mystery as the face of Poytosh was badly marked. These scars were at first believed to have been the result of scalding but were later said by an undertaker in Erie to be probable bruises and the aftermath of bitter cold weather. This added to the mystery as local marines declare they are at a loss to determine what happened to the tug after it was said the marks on Poytosh's face were not caused by scalding.

A federal investigation into the disappearance of the tug will be started within a few days.

The Cornell left here Thursday afternoon for Buffalo where she was to have been turned over to a Syracuse firm which recently purchased the tug from the Great Lakes Towing company for use in the Erie Canal. She was a wooden craft built in 1888 and rebuilt in 1909, but has not been in commission since 1921.

Marine men are of the opinion that if the vessel had caught fire the crew could have got into life boats which was designed for nine persons. They also discount the theory of the vessel having foundered, inasmuch as no storms were reported Thursday, Friday or Saturday by the Erie weather bureau. No ice cakes large enough to cause serious damage could have been in the lake, it is claimed.

The body covered with ice was lying face down and frozen to the plank of the life boat bottom. Ice coated the rest of the hull. In order to remove the body it was necessary to saw off one of the seats of the yawl.

MAN WHO POSED AS SANTA CLAUS IS UNDER ARREST

Former President of Defunct Bond Company is Held

(By The Associated Press)

MADISON, WIS., Dec. 26.—Victor H. Arnold, former president of the bankrupt Madison Bond company who one year ago posed as a beneficent Santa Claus to Madison's needy, was arrested today in Bayside N. Y. charged with using the mails to defraud hundreds of small investors of their savings. His arrest was made on an indictment returned Wednesday by the federal grand jury for the eastern district of Wisconsin. The sensational ventures of Arnold, including an expenditure last year of $30,000 to afford a Christmas of plenty to the poor of this city and various flights into the field of religious teaching, were climaxed by his indictment and arrest. Thirty-one counts alleging three fraudulent schemes for selling securities are included in the grand jury charges which bring Arnold back to Madison, a prisoner, to face his former clients. On one of these schemes alone the indictment says $613,000 was realized.

The bond company president began to attract attention locally some years ago when Norma Talmage, moving picture actress, paid visits to two of his daughters then dancing students in New York. His home here was the center of several large and pretentious social functions.

Then in the spring of 1921, Arnold broke into print when he charged officials of the bonding company with embezzlements of its funds.

At that time he went before the stockholders of his company in a special meeting, declared that dishonesty had placed affairs of the concern in a critical condition and asked all stock be turned over to him with his personal note running for five years, as security. $613,000 worth of stock is alleged to have been transferred to Arnold, who thus obtained control of the company. The charges of dishonesty against company officials broke down.

Gives Poor Big Time
When Christmas time came around Arnold placed unlimited credit with the stores of Madison and asked all of the city's needy to go to the stores, buy what food they needed, purchase two tons of coal and have the bill charged to him. This venture is said to have cost $30,000.

Following his Christmas enterprise the bond company purchased a local church, turned it into an office building and set out selling securities on a larger scale. At this time, also Arnold hired a local church and started to give lectures on Christianity in business telling how the fundamental teachings of the bible should be applied to business.

In March, 1922, he tried to put into effect a scheme which resulted first in bankruptcy proceedings against his company and now in his indictment. By this plan, the indictment charges, Arnold sought to defraud all of the owners of outstanding collateral bonds sold by his company out of their holdings by agreeing to purchase them in return for the purchase of securities on a larger scale.

Arnold took up his residence after failure of his company at his New York home. He recently wrote a local friend saying he intended to return to Madison, enter business again and pay his creditors. He said that in the meantime the creditors should pray and put their faith in him.

Receivers of the Madison Bond company report that the man has lived lavishly, maintaining several automobiles and servants.

His creditors are largely small investors and small Wisconsin banks.

Chinese Flapper Runs Away; Halts Wedding

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The twisted streets of Chinatown, which have pulsed with subdued gossiping since Mildred Wenn, 19 year old Chinese "flapper" ran away from her Washington home Friday almost on the eve of her wedding to George Num Lee, scion of one of the best Chinese families of New York had some added thrills today.

The first came when word was passed that Miss Wenn had returned home and that Geo. Lee, whose father is president of the On Leong Tong in the United States had rushed to her this morning. Then, about noon, almost every inhabitant of More street congregated about the Lee home, saw two black shiny windproof trunks lugged up five winding flights of stairs by truck men of the Canton Transfer company.

Across the end of each trunk in brave red letters was the name M. Wenn.

The trousseau had arrived but still no bride. A little while later Lee Quon, Tong chieftain and prospective father-in-law, hurried from the house and according to neighbors took a train for Washington. This gave added sweep to rumors that the Americanized Mildred Wenn had put her foot down on the Chinese tradition that a bride must go to her husband, and had delivered an ultimatum that there would be no wedding unless it was solemnized in Washington.

The Elder Chinese of Mott, Pell and Deyers streets masking whatever emotions they may have had behind impassive faces shook their heads and kept stony silence before reporters. Members of the generation also were unable to account for the wedding feast.

Meantime, the gorgeous red rooms of the On Leong Tong, with their decorations of poppies and gold dragons, yawn empty for the wedding guests, the wedding feast reposes in cold storage, the wedding jewels wait in Lee Quon's strong box and all Chinatown is all a-gossip.

NEW PROHIBITION AGENT PLANS TO CLAMP ON THE LID

New Chicago Official Says City Will Be Very Dry

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—John E. Early, who succeeds Guy W. Ginders as chief prohibition field agent here and Mr. Ginders today collaborated in announcing that the field agents would be watchful in preventing New Year's violation of the Volstead law. But they smiled over stories that beautiful women had been recruited for espionage on New Year parties and that they and dress suited agents would attend the holiday functions to prevent celebrations with liquor.

"Our office means business, not comedy or romance," said Mr. Ginders. "Our investigators are trained and efficient. They have not reached the point at which they are forced to call upon young women to make their arrests or get their evidence for them."

Mr. Early told received his commission from Prohibition Commissioner Haynes. He comes here from East St. Louis to succeed Mr. Ginders who resigned January 1.

Government agents told today of a new method of smuggling liquor into the United States from Canada and Mexico. They said aluminum tubes containing a few ounces of liquor had been concealed in newspapers mailed to addresses in this country and that a number of persons receiving the contraband packages would be questioned.

An ambulance surgeon said the child had been dead about five hours. He discovered no signs of injury other than the bullet wound.

Standing beside the child's body was Curley, her white poodle, a "good watch dog" as the mother described him, and the little girl's constant companion.

DECLARE GERMANY IN DEFAULT ON WOOD DELIVERIES

France Gains Important Victory in Reparations Commission

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Dec. 26.—France gained an important victory in the allied reparations commission today when the commission by a vote of 3 to 1 declared Germany in voluntary default in her wood deliveries for 1922.

France, Belgium and Italy voted in favor of the declaration and Great Britain cast its ballots against it. The decision of the commission was immediately communicated to the allied governments for their action. It may have a vital effect on the reparations problem if France can retain the support of Italy and Belgium when the reparations question is discussed at the January 2 meeting of the premiers.

The vote cast against the declaration by Great Britain was in accordance with British policy which has been opposed to declaring Germany in default, in the fear that such action might have a disastrous effect on the precarious state of German finance.

France is considered to have scored an important point in the decision of the commission was arrived at on a majority vote. France had been alone for a long time in the contention that Germany could be placed in involuntary default by a simple majority vote.

Italy's support of France in the balloting came as a surprise and as an indication that Premier Mussolini is swinging over to the French side in the reparations controversy.

Germany has carried out more than 60 per cent of its schedule of wood deliveries for this year. When the German experts were before the commission several weeks ago they announced that Germany had been unable to deliver more than she had and that the deliveries for 1922 must be greatly reduced.

BERNHARDT SHOWS IMPROVEMENT IN HER CONDITION

Friends Now Believe That She Has Chance for Recovery

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Dec. 26.—The house of Sarah Bernhardt was jubilant this evening over the remarkable improvement shown in her condition. The deep gloom which had settled down upon the family and faithful followers of the actress because of her illness was almost dispelled by the continued optimism of the doctors, who have permitted Madame Bernhardt to sit up in her room twice during the past 24 hours.

Madame Bernhardt had Christmas dinner last night with the members of her family and a few intimate friends. She ate a small piece of turkey and talked cheerfully and hopefully of her return to the foot lights.

She was beginning to believe she said that she would be spared to act 10 years more. She confided to several friends that she expected to assume her role in the New Guirly play that was about to be produced when she was stricken within three weeks.

The magistrate refused to entertain the landlords plea that he had been unable to buy coal. "It is apparent," he said "that this defendant did nothing but wait until winter was upon us."

Health department inspectors testified that only seven tons of coal had been used for heating the homes of the 72 families this winter.

CHANCELLOR CUNO HAS AMMUNITION FOR ALL OCCASIONS

Prepared to Answer Any Arguments As to Reparations

(By The Associated Press)

BERLIN, Dec. 26.—Chancellor Cuno, who has been spending the Christmas holidays with his family and friends in Hamburg, returned to the capital today and at once resumed discussion of the reparations program with the few ministers who were spending Christmas in Berlin.

Altho the government has not been officially advised from Paris that the entente premiers will be prepared to receive fresh amplified proposals the chancellor is determined to be equipped with ammunition of this sort and he purposes answering any summons with amplifications of his previous propositions and also with a carefully formulated offer for the definite fixing of the reparations totals based upon his present survey of Germany's economic and financial capacity.

The chancellor with Finance Minister Hermes and Johannes Becker, minister of economics, has been occupied the past ten days with intimate conversations with industrialists, bankers, shipping leaders and representatives of importing and exporting industries and has kept the Reichstag leaders and the officials of the general federation of labor unions informed of the nature and progress of these consultations.

The chancellor also has called in the leaders of the nationalist parties, among them Dr. Karl Helfferich, Count VonWestarp and Professor Otto Hoetsch and the government for the time being may be said to have preliminary backing even to the inclusion of the United Socialists, in its determination to effect an ultimate adjustment of the whole range of reparations problems.

Whether the fixation which the government proposes to indicate in its forthcoming proposition will be announced before hand is uncertain as are other cardinal features of the impending offers.

The internal situation has been thoroughly canvassed during the progress of the current discussions and the chancellor believes he has succeeded in mobilizing every ounce of the nation's productive energy in response to his appeal for cooperation.

The bulk of opinion as reflected in informal talks with officials and participants in the conferences appears to be emphatically in favor of the final fixation of Germany's obligations.

Until this is done the government, it is declared will not be in a position to attack such urgent problems as the stabilization of marks and securing a budget.

Meanwhile Germany is fast rounding out her "year of trillions"—her combined floating and funded debt having already passed the thirteenth digit mark while the amount of currency creation will also have advanced to that figure by the end of the year. A conservative estimate of her 1923 budget shows this also reaching a point above the trillion.

WORKERS' PARTY LAYS PLANS FOR REVOLUTION

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The Workers' Party of America at the close of its second annual convention today sent a message to the communist international at Moscow reporting the convention "had devoted itself to the constructive work of building a powerful revolutionary movement in America."

All reports indicate greater influence of the party in the actual struggles of the workers, the message added. "We go forward with new strength and enthusiasm, long live communism and the international."

It was signed by C. E. Ruthenberg, executive secretary of the workers party. After the message had been read the delegates sang the Internationale and gave three cheers for the Third Communist International.

A resolution was adopted calling on the workers to go forward with the party, "forward to the victory of the American social revolution under the leadership and guidance of the Communist International."

Other resolutions urged all workers in this country to join in a movement to compel the government of the United States to recognize soviet Russia and grant a long term loan for Russia's reconstruction, attacked the Ku Klux Klan and the American Legion and endorsed the Russian-American Industrial corporation.

Rose Pastor Stokes was one of the eleven new members added to the Central Executive committee.

The convention endorsed the future development of the young workers' league as part of the revolutionary plan deciding to use it in distributing propaganda.

ARMENIA STORM CENTER OF NEAR EAST CONFERENCE

Turks Refuse to Attend Meeting to Hear Plea

(By The Associated Press)

LAUSANNE, Dec. 26.—Armenia was the storm center of the Near East conference today. The Turks refused to attend a meeting of the sub-commission which had arranged to hear the plea of the Armenians for the establishment of a national home in Turkey and Ismet Pasha and Riza Nur Bey sent arrogantly worded communications to the conference protesting against the decision to allow the Armenians to state their case.

They declared that if the Armenians, who had no official standing and reported non-dependent government were heard by the conference there was no reason why the Egyptians or the Irish should not be allowed to present their demands.

The so-called irregular Egyptian delegation has been waiting in Lausanne for more than a month for permission to voice a demand for the independence of Egypt and withdrawal of the British army.

In consequence of the Turkish protest the official meeting of the sub-commission was postponed and the representatives of Great Britain, France and Italy sitting alone, listened to the Armenian spokesman, who suggested that a home be established in north-east Vilayets of Turkey, which should include historic Mount Ararat or a section of Cilicia.

The Armenians would willingly accept the same relationship with Turkey as the dominions with England. In conclusion he asked for exemption from military service for the Armenians and urged maintenance of the Orthodox patriarch in Constantinople.

The entente delegates took the Armenian petition under advisement, as they did also petitions from the Bulgarians and the ancient people known as the Assyro-Chaldeans.

Noradunghian Pasha, once Turkish foreign minister, presented the Armenian plea. He said the tragic events of 1915 had widened the gulf between the Turks and the Armenians.

Regret Mutual Distrust
"We deeply regret that mutual distrust still exists between the Turks and Armenians," he continued, "and that nothing is being done by Turkey to diminish the gravity of the situation. It is impossible for us to consider a solution that the refugee Armenians who are in foreign countries should return to Turkey as Ismet suggests."

The Bulgarians requested that 160,000 Bulgarians who had fled from Oriental Thrace should be permitted to return to that country which had become Turkish territory and said they were ready to accept the same treatment as Turkish citizens.

Biblical history came before the meeting when representatives of the Assyro-Chaldeans arose, their people live in Mesopotamia, between Mosul and the Turkish frontier and they wish to maintain their own language and customs and to be allowed to dwell in peace. General Agliprot their chief spokesman, said with dignity, that history had proved that Adam was born in their country and the early chapters of early life moved about the Assyro-Chaldeans.

Hopeful progress was made today on the problem of the Greek patriarch. The French suggested as a possible solution that permission be granted the patriarch to remain in Constantinople as an autonomous archbishop with the understanding that he would in no way represent political or administrative matters or voice the ambitions or incarnate aspirations of Greece.

The straits problem still remains unsettled, the allies are striving to arrange some formula for a general collective guarantee that Turkey will not be subjected to foreign aggression.

Advisability of supporting, in modified form the Bora proposal for an economic conference of world powers was considered by senate Republican leaders.

Chief Justice Taft announced that senior circuit judges would meet here Thursday to discuss means of relieving docket congestion in the federal courts.

A THOUGHT

A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.—John 13:24.

This is true philanthropy, that buries not its gold in ostentatious charity, but builds its hospital in the human heart.—Harley.

Business has been so steadily good in Jacksonville for the past weeks that it may be hard this year for the average merchant to adjust himself to the after-holiday quiet.

Christmas weather is said to have been warmest recorded for twenty-seven years. Nobody but the coal operators and the miners care if this brand of weather continues until the calendar shows that it is springtime.

The chances are that the subsidy bill will be talked to death or delayed in one way or another until there is no chance for its passage.

President Harding can have the consolation that this same thing has happened more than once before and the country still lives.

E. W. Crawford has retired from business after forty-five years of activity. It is really a remarkable thing to round out such a long period with good health and the good opinion of one's fellow citizens. That is Mr. Crawford's record.

There is plenty of food for thought in the report just made public which shows 641 deaths in Cook county caused by automobiles within one year. Certainly the way must be found which will curb the speeders and result in lessening this annual death toll. Some very stringent proposals have been made for control of this situation but none more stringent than the facts warrant. After all the necessity may come of barring high powered cars from the highways. No one has been able to satisfactorily explain why cities and states fix speed laws for streets and highways with the full knowledge that the laws will be violated by practically every car driver.

The decision of city officials to abolish the garbage tax will be pleasing to a great many people, mainly because the action will make a definite reduction in the city tax rate. Ten cents on the hundred dollars of valuation is not a great sum in itself but it is the various taxes that tend to swell the total.

There have been so many complaints arising from the system of garbage collection that the officials decided that a new plan should be tried, and they believe that without the special tax a system can be worked out which will keep the streets, alleys and premises in sanitary condition without the tax fund. At any rate, the effort will be made and if not successful perhaps some succeeding council may restore the garbage tax.

Experiences of most cities with reference to garbage disposal and collection have not been satisfactory. There are objections to nearly all the plans that have been tried out and there is no consensus of opinion as to the very best method.

ASK YOUR BANKER

Says Herbert Casson in Forbes Magazine:

In the jungle of finance there are no maps and no paths. Every one is more or less lost, most of the time.

But there are a few persons who have spent their lives in the jungle and who know its signs and its dangers.

Of these persons, the most reliable are the bankers. That is a pointer that may save you many a loss.

The jungle, you see, is full of would-be guides. Plenty of promoters and common swindlers will offer you maps and guide-books.

There is practically no such thing as disinterested advice or service in the jungle. You had better know this before you go in the jungle, instead of after you come out.

As soon as you lose your pocketbook, all the guides and advisers will disappear. You will find yourself on your own.

The banker is a custodian. He is a man who protects money from being lost. He is all for safety.

If he does not know the paths of the jungle, at least he knows the hiding places. He spends his life studying the signs of danger.

More than this, the banker can pull you out of trouble, if he wishes.

A broker's idea is to keep his clients buying and selling; while a banker's idea is to protect his clients against loss.

A broker is paid by commission, on what his client buys or sells; but a banker is paid a salary. There is one vital point, which is perhaps the explanation of all this.

If brokers were put on salary, and bankers were put on commission, the whole world of finance would be marvellously altered; and whether for better or worse, no one knows.

But this one clear fact stands out and cannot be denied, that a banker is in a better position to give disinterested advice than any body else is.

One bumped a motored truck, then there were eight.

Eight little motorists trusting much in Heaven,
One tried to hog the road—then there were seven.

Seven little motorists trying clever tricks,
One met a railroad train—then there were six.

Six little motorists thought that they could drive,
One skidded off a bridge—then there were five.

Five little motorists speeding more and more,
One struck a Thank-you-ma'am—then there were four.

Four little motorists driving recklessly,
One sassed a motor-cop—then there were three.

Three little motorists heaving into view,
One passed upon a curve—then there were two.

Two little motorists out to make a run,
One hit a granite wall—then there was one.

One little motorist packing quite a bun,
He's in a prison cell—so there was none!

Here is a history it is well to heed,
It has a moral he who drives may read!

OBSERVE FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Crawford Were Married Fifty Years On Christmas Day—Event Observed in an Appropriate Manner.

It was a happy Christmas observance that took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Crawford, 239 Sandusky street Monday. The fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of these two highly esteemed residents of Jacksonville was fittingly observed with all of their children present.

The home had been attractively decorated for this important anniversary event. In the living room red and green predominated, a profusion of Cleveland cherries and potted plants being used with artistic effect. Poinsettias, red bougainvillea and Spanish moss, gave a touch of Florida where Mr. and Mrs. Crawford had been accustomed for a period of years to spend the winter seasons with their daughter, Mrs. H. E. Stevens. These flowers of the southland were sent by Mr. Stevens and made the long journey in perfect condition.

In the dining room as suggestive of the golden wedding anniversary, yellow chrysanthemums were used and these radiant flowers were entwined with smilax in a way which gave added grace to the decorative plan.

It was at 1:30 p. m. fifty years before that E. W. Crawford and Miss Mary Lindsay were married at the Lindsay home, a few miles from Jacksonville by river. Mr. Eckman, so the hour of 1:30 was chosen for the serving of the anniversary dinner and a splendid dinner it was, including all of the good things that could be thought of for such an occasion.

The hand painted place cards executed by Lee Crawford, were adorned with golden wedding bells, and the favors were also of appropriate design.

As the company assembled about the table Mrs. Walter Crawford played the Mendelssohn Wedding March, and a little later Mrs. Thomas Crawford sang effectively "Little Mother O'Mine." The grandsons served the dinner.

After the final course a Christmas tree was the feature with Mr. Crawford acting as Santa Claus and his two grandsons, Gerald Shibe and Lawrence Crawford, serving as gift bearers. It was then that Mr. Crawford gave his children a surprise for he divided among them his holdings in the Crawford Lumber company. Because of advancing years and his desire to have more freedom Mr. Crawford decided to retire from the business concern of which he has been such an important part thru a long period of years.

Mr. Crawford established the Crawford Planing Mill a great many years ago and conducted the plant in a successful way. In the recent years lumber was added and Mr. Crawford, with the assistance of his sons, developed and enlarged the business in a most satisfactory way.

The Crawford Lumber company now one of the important business concerns of Jacksonville is now organized with Walter A. Crawford as president and treasurer; Lee Crawford, vice president, and Miss Verna Butcher, secretary.

No man has a better name for a business integrity than Eli W. Crawford and his life has been so ordered that thru all the years he has had the respect and good opinion of his fellow citizens. He has been successful in business and amassed a competency and at the same time has impressed all with whom he has come in contact with his fairness.

Now that his business cares are to be fewer in number he and Mrs. Crawford will spend the greater part of their time in Florida with Mr. and Mrs. Stevens.

There were various handsome gifts presented the bride and groom of fifty years by the children including a gold watch, a purse of gold and a floor lamp.

Present at the anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Crawford, of Evanston; Mrs. H. E. Stevens, of Ft. Myers, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Shibe and sons, Byron and Gerald and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Crawford and son, Lawrence, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crawford, all of Jacksonville, together with Mrs. Ricks, the mother of Mrs. W. A. Crawford.

VETERAN MINISTER DIES AT HOME IN TEXAS

Rev. Philip Minear Served Numerous Methodist Churches—In Ministry Sixty-Eight Years.

The Neville, Texas, Inquirer of a recent date gives the facts concerning the death of Rev. Philip Minear, long a resident in this vicinity serving as a Methodist minister. The deceased married Miss Sarah Williams, aunt of Mrs. J. D. Hembrough of 217 West Greenwood avenue. Exeter, Naples, Lynnville and Chapin were among the churches served in this locality. Other churches at which the deceased was the minister were Shelbyville, Petersburg, Virginia, Champaign, Charleston, Dallas, Vermont, Lincoln and San Jose.

Paragraphs from the Texas paper are given:

"On the afternoon of Thursday, Nov. 23, at the hour of 3:20 o'clock in the afternoon, at his home at Neville, this county, there passed to the eternal home the spirit of Rev. Philip N. Minear, venerable servant of God, who laid earth's burdens down at the ripe age of 86 years, 8 months and 1 day, entering into the presence of the Master whom he had sought to serve in all faith and simplicity since his early boyhood.

"Mr. Minear's passing was a gentle falling asleep in this life to awaken in that house not prepared with hands, the loved ones who were called to his bedside about two weeks ago realizing that his going was but a matter of days as the infirmities of age were gradually taking him with them.

"He leaves a wife and three sons, J. E. Minear, of Fort Stockton; A. E. Minear, of Clarke County, and George Minear, of this city; two daughters, Mrs. Frank Stone of this city, and Miss Pearl Minear, of Neville, a number of grand children and several great-grandchildren.

"In his passing Gonzales county loses an honored old citizen who has been a resident of the county for over thirty years, coming here from San Jose, Ill., in 1890, and founding the little village of Neville. He was a well known figure not only to everyone in that immediate section of the county, but enjoyed a wide acquaintance over the county and in town, being held in the warmest esteem by everyone who knew him.

"For 68 years he had been a minister of the gospel of the Methodist church, and had been on the retired list for about 34 years.

"After his retirement from the active duties of the ministry, he preached from time to time wherever opportunity presented being always ready to answer a call to service.

"He was a veteran of the Civil War, having served as chaplain and had an honored war record. Having enjoyed excellent educational advantages, Mr. Minear was one of the best informed men, especially on scientific subjects, and kept pace with the advancement of the times, taking a keen interest in affairs of the day almost to the day of his passing.

"Impressive funeral services were conducted at the First Methodist church at 4 o'clock, the remains being brought in from his home at Neville at that hour. A large congregation was in attendance to pay his memory honored tribute. The pastor, Dr. W. N. Carl, conducted the impressive services, making a brief talk on the life of Mr. Minear.

"Dr. J. E. James, pastor of the Presbyterian church, read the scripture appropriate to the occasion, while eloquent prayers were offered by Dr. Penrod, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Rev. John Hierholzer, pastor of the German Methodist church.

"Dr. Minear's old favorite hymns were sweetly rendered by the choir, among them, 'The Home Over There,' and 'Just As I Am,' the latter song lingering in his memory almost to the last, its words being on his lips just before he went into the presence of his Master."

AGED RESIDENT IS SUMMONED BY DEATH

John W. Prince Dies Suddenly Monday Evening While Delivering Christmas Gift.

The sudden death of John W. Prince, aged resident of this city, occurred about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Reynolds home, 345 West North street, where he had gone to deliver a Christmas gift. Mr. Prince was stricken with an attack of heart failure as he was leaving the Reynolds residence. Mr. Prince has been for several years employed at a pharmacist at the establishment of Jacob Long on the east side of the square. He was a man of genial nature and was accustomed to deliver many Christmas gifts among his friends.

Mr. Prince was a native of Indiana, but came to this city early in life and was for a time principal of the first ward school. He then went to Griggsville where he became head of the public schools. However he has been a resident of this city for the past twenty years.

CLEAN WHEAT URGED FOR MARKET SHIPMENT

Investigation For Department of Agriculture Makes Statement About Saving Methods in Marketing Grain.

Large savings in the cost of transporting grain to terminal markets would be effected if farmers and country elevators would ship only clean wheat to market, in the opinion of Robert H. Black, in charge of grain cleaning investigations for the United States Department of Agriculture.

The average carload of spring wheat received at Minneapolis during October contained over 1 1/2 tons of screenings, Mr. Black said. These screenings was a total loss to the shipper. The result not only was a waste of transportation space but increased considerably the transportation costs on the good wheat.

Minnesota grain inspection records for October show that Minneapolis received 11,332 cars of spring wheat during that month containing an average of 4 1/2 per cent of dockage. The transportation space occupied by this foreign material in the wheat raised 450 cars more than would have been required had the dockage been removed before shipment, Mr. Black said.

For the shipping season up to November 21 this year nearly 650,000 bushels of dockage or foreign material in the wheat was shipped to market, the records show.

During the 1920-21 crop year the quantity of dockage or foreign material in the wheat shipped to market was so great that more than 14,000 additional freight cars were required to haul the wheat than would have been necessary had the wheat been cleaned before shipment.

Mr. Black is conducting an educational campaign among the spring wheat growers looking toward the cleaning of wheat on the farm, having in operation in the field several grain-cleaning devices attached to threshing separators that can be operated at exceedingly small cost compared with the losses sustained by shippers thru shipping dockage in wheat to market.

Mr. Black is also arranging to conduct a grain cleaning school at Fargo for the purpose of teaching farmers effective grain cleaning methods. A large attendance is expected.

Minnesota grain inspecting records for the past eighteen years show a marked increase in the percentage of dockage in wheat arriving at terminal markets, ranging from 2 per cent in 1903 to more than 5 per cent in 1921. On this basis the 1921 spring wheat crop contained more than 10,000,000 bushels of dockage, the transportation cost on which was a total loss to the shippers. Mr. Black states that when the cleaning is done on the farm, or at the country elevator, the cleanest wheat will bring a better price on the market, the freight on the dockage will be saved, more cars will be available for hauling wheat, and the screenings will be available for feed. When finely ground the screenings can be substituted for the higher priced feeds, such as oats, corn and commercial mill feed, Mr. Black said.

CITY WILL ABOLISH THE GARBAGE TAX

Council Committee Decided On This Action Last Night—System of Garbage Collection Will Be Changed.

When the property owner comes to pay his taxes the coming spring he will find none due for the collection of garbage. It was decided at a meeting of a council committee last night to reject all of the bids recently received for garbage disposal and to change the whole plan for the coming year.

A new ordinance will be drawn, an inspector appointed, and garbage and rubbish will be collected by licensed collectors who will be paid by the property owners for the service rendered.

At a recent meeting of the council when bids for garbage disposal were referred to the public health committee and the mayor with power to act. This committee includes Aldermen Harmon, Ehnie and Loneragan and a meeting was held last night of the mayor, members of the committee and Dr. R. V. Brokaw, public health officer, at which the action outlined above was determined upon. County Clerk Riggs will be officially notified of the action.

There have been various flaws in the system of garbage disposal used under the existing ordinance and there have been frequent complaints made. It was after a thorough canvass of the whole situation and a consideration of systems used in other cities that the committee favored the abolishment of the tax and the establishment of an entirely new method for doing the work. The fact that the public will greatly appreciate tax reduction was taken into account and the cutting out of the ten cent garbage tax will help make the burdens of the city tax payer lighter.

As indicated a new ordinance will be drafted soon providing for the naming of an inspector and for the removal of garbage and defining what shall be classed as such. The inspector will work in the health department of the city and will have various duties to perform.

Because the garbage tax is to be abandoned does not mean that the city does not intend to insist on cleanly conditions but merely that a new plan is to be tried which the city officials feel may bring more satisfactory results and without the imposition of the tax which many property owners found irksome.

PHILIP BACON DIED LATE MONDAY NIGHT

Heart Failure Caused Death—Was Seized With Attack at Cherry Garage—Funeral Friday.

Christmas day terminated the life span of Philip Bacon, 65 years old, when arterio-sclerosis brought about repeated attacks which culminated in his being taken in charge of Dr. A. M. King, to Passavant hospital from the Cherry Garage. His daughter, Mrs. John Woods, proprietor of a cafe in East Morgan street, arrived to accompany him to the hospital, where he died a few minutes later at the hour of 11:15.

Mr. Bacon had spoken earlier in the day of attacks of the heart, which he said were the first he had suffered.

Funeral services, originally set for Thursday afternoon, have been postponed until 2:30 Friday afternoon on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Bacon. Services will be held at the Gilham Funeral Home, with burial rites at Jacksonville cemetery.

Mr. Bacon was born in Morgan county, the son of Shelton and Jane Wade Bacon. Forty-five years ago he was married to Miss Jennie Clayton who, with his daughters, Mrs. Nellie DeSilva and Mrs. Bess Woods, both of Jacksonville, survive him.

At the inquest held by Coroner Rose Tuesday morning, Dr. King and Mrs. Woods were witnesses.

GIFT CAMPAIGN GETS CHICAGO PURCHASER

Is the Gift Campaign really attracting purchasers, or were they going to flock to Jacksonville in such numbers as local merchants have reported anyhow? This question was answered in a big way by the results of the special C. P. & St. L., excursion. ## OLD JACKSONVILLE

WHERE DOUGLAS BOARDED

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical Society

Many houses get a distinction from people who have passed their portals.

George W. Fox, Jr., was proud, and rightly so, that the old "Mansion House," now known as the Park Hotel, had entertained Lincoln, and that the name of the great Emancipator was on the Register of his grandfather Fox's hotel.

At the time of Douglas' Centennial, 1913, an eastern periodical published an illustrated article, and the Courier, here, had another, about the "Little Giant" having boarded at "Heslep's Tavern."

It was also referred to, April 5, 1922, in an "O. J." story headed "The Hesleps."

The house stood, and still stands on West State, north side, between West and Church streets, now being occupied in part by Doctors Hardesty and Griswold.

As stated in the "Heslep" article the house was built by them, about 1834. It was a good-sized two-story frame, fronting south on State street, nearly opposite "the Dunlap."

The old tavern had two windows and a front door to the street; and, at the east end of this side was a wide, rather low porch, with gable end to the street. This had a long porch seat on its east and west side. As the building became older the whole front sank down considerably and the porch floor was only about a step up from the ground.

Robert Cassell, brother of Dr. J. T. Cassell, occupied the house as a private residence in 1857, and until about 1865 or 66, when Dr. DeLeuw came here to reside. The Doctor moved the building around somewhat, put a longer porch on the west part of the front and on the east side, and set the whole house up on a higher foundation.

DeLeuw did not stay there very long, but made some sort of a trade with Judge James Berdan, for the latter's residence, southeast corner of East and Morgan streets.

Judge Berdan

Dr. DeLeuw and Judge Berdan, made his last earthly home there for ten or fifteen years. Dr. Tiffany, who married Miss Mary Berdan, lived with Berdan's for some years. The Tiffany's went thence to Springfield, their present home, where Mrs. Tiffany is a leading musician.

Judge Berdan was the son of David Berdan, of New York City, a member of the exploring party sent out by an emigration society in New York, in October, 1819. The other two members of the party were George Nixon and Isaac Fort Roe. They passed and named Diamond Grove Jan. 23, 1820, and Roe built a log cabin there, and was the first white man to die in this county. His grave and monument are near the entrance to Diamond Grove cemetery now.

Dr. DeLeuw and Judge Berdan, it should have been stated, exchanged residences with each other.

The writer does not recall who bought or occupied the old house, after Judge Berdan and the Tiffany's left it, but

Mrs. Washington Hook, a niece of Miss Egbert made her home there, for several years before her death.

The doctors above named have "officed" there for some years.

The Women's Temperance Crusading Movement occurred in 1874. A result of this, here, was the establishment of what has now become the Public Library. Mrs. Washington Hook, unless the writer is mistaken, was the first librarian of this public beneficence. She was a Knickerbocker and attended the Episcopal church.

GLIDDEN REEVE MARRIED TUESDAY

Former Resident Weds Milwaukee Girl—Will Reside at Downers Grove Where Groom Is Teaching.

The marriage of Glidden Reeve, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Reeve of 306 Hardin avenue, and Miss Gertrude Perkins of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, took place yesterday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of the bride in Milwaukee. The services were said before only members of the family and a few intimate friends. Mrs. Robert E. Scott of Newcastle, California, a sister of Mr. Reeve, was present at the ceremony.

After the wedding the young couple left for Chicago and they will arrive in Jacksonville today to spend the rest of the holidays at the home of Mr. Reeve's parents. The first of the year they will go to Downers Grove, Illinois, where Mr. Reeve is teaching, to make their home.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Perkins of Milwaukee. She is a graduate of the Milwaukee high school and later took a course in library work. She has been, until recently, a member of the staff in the public library in Milwaukee.

Mr. Reeve is well known in Jacksonville, having spent most of his life here. He graduated from the Jacksonville high school and later went to Knox College, at Galesburg, where he graduated with the class of 1922. Trustees—C. O. Bayless, William Goffinett, Roy Abernathy, Church Clerk—Bert Way.

Treasurer—F. M. Dober.

A new furnace was installed some weeks ago, and now that the church is well lighted by electric lights, all is in readiness for the revival meetings to begin on next Sunday morning. The pastor, J. E. Tearney will be in charge. A meeting of not less than two weeks will be held, and it is hoped that there will be an ingathering of new members and that the church will take on new life and activity. The Sunday school is doing well under the leadership of M. O. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Morrison were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Cratz on Sunday.

Ruth and Leland Henderson of 460 South East street, Jacksonville, came down on Sunday evening to spend Christmas with relatives.

A daring robbery was pulled off in our town on Sunday night. Burglars broke the plate glass door in the front of Onken, Mayer and Cratz some time after midnight and secured quite a number of shoes and other valuable goods, leaving the boxes in the store and by the wayside a half mile south of the village. Some time these miscreants are going to meet their just reward. A good dose of buck shot?

Marion F. Henderson wrote his father a funny account of a chinaman's encounter with some house robbers recently in Tucson, Ariz. They got the chink's gold "tick tock."

* A LETTER FROM FLORIDA *

Editor Journal:
In Jacksonville, Florida, we have an organization called "The Illinois Society" which meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 8:00 P. M. from November to July.

Its members includes former Illinois people who now reside in Jacksonville and also those who spend the winter here, commonly called the "Tourists."

At our meetings we have a short program of music, readings, games, etc., with eats thrown in occasionally, followed by a good social time, which might be termed a "gab-feast." We have at least one real banquet during the winter, and beach parties and boat rides in the summer.

We desire to invite through the Jacksonville Journal, each and all of the Illinois folks coming to Florida to visit our society and let us assist them any way we can while in this city, the Metropolis and Gateway of Florida. When arriving at the "Terminal Station" or depot use the telephone, call 901W, ask for Mrs. Harry Planert, the president of the Society, who will give you all the information possible.

Respectfully,

MRS. L. G. WELLENREITER
3705 Main Street.

WESTMINSTER NOTES

This evening the church night service will consider Mr. Porquian's book "In His Image"—Especially the chapter on "The Origin of Man" will be studied in connection with Psalm 139 and Acts XVII. Mr. Bryan opposes earnestly the theory of the Materialistic origin of man.

Mr. George Gunn of Chicago is spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. John P. Gunn. He will sing at both services next Sunday, Dec. 31, assisting Mrs. Woltman. Mr. Gunn as a baritone has already made his mark in Chicago as well as on the Chautauqua circuit. His voice is a rare one and the spirit which he puts into his work is very admirable.

Next Sunday evening the film services will be "The Lost Christ"—"The Gospel of Another Chance" and "The Light of the World" will all be thrown upon the screen. The sermon will be upon one of these.

I will not be responsible for anybody's debts except my own.
